Using the library search to find an ebook.

We're looking for an ebook version of a textbook called Psychology by Bernstein. You can refine your results using the links on the left to online and then books.

To access the ebook click 'Access online.'

Click the link next to 'Full text available at' to access the ebook, then login with your Swinburne ID and password.

Click the 'Read online' link to access the full text.

Most ebooks can be downloaded as a pdf file, either a chapter at a time or the whole book.

Some books must be read online or can be downloaded to read offline using free software.

If you have any other questions about finding ebooks, speak to a library staff member, contact us online or visit the library website.
