

ABOUT CONSENT MATTERS

In your university life, work life and private life, having a grasp on key concepts around consent, communication and respect is vital. At Swinburne, we expect respect and have zero tolerance of sexual assault and sexual harassment. Swinburne asks all students to complete Consent Matters so that everyone has the knowledge to make their relationships respectful and safe ones, and the ability to look out for others and safely intervene.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Consent matters has three modules. It will take around 1 hour to complete the whole course. Each module includes a quiz at the end. You will need to achieve a result of at least 80% to pass each module.

The three modules are:

- Module 1: Thinking about consent
- Module 2: communication skills and relationships
- Module 3: Looking out for others

COURSE EVALUATION

There is an evaluation at the end of the course. Completing this survey helps us determine if Consent Matters is an effective learning tool for you. You can also access the survey here.

CONTENT WARNING

This course covers some sensitive topics, such as sexual assault and rape. If you are affected by any of the topics discussed in the course, support is available to you. Swinburne support services and resources are listed along-side state and nation-wide ones throughout the course, and in the Support and Resource Bank sections. Some key support services are listed below.

- Report incidents of sexual assault and sexual harassment to Safer Community for advice and support
- Swinburne out-of-hours crisis link - 1300 854 144
- National Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Counseling Service - 1800 RESPECT (1800 737 732)

Passing this online Consent Matters Training course is a crucial step to being eligible to participate in volunteering opportunities provided by Swinburne Student Life.
